Jury out in Wolverton death trial

TWO men charged with the murder of 18-year-old Atiq Rehman will discover their fate today.

The trial of Ghur Rehman and Haroon Awan came to a close yesterday and the jury are expected to announce their verdict at Luton Crown Court before 4pm.

As Judge John Bevan gave his summary of the case he said: "The assault of Atiq Rehman was perpetrated by members of a close knit family of brothers and cousins.

"We are not given any reason why these two groups dislike each other, save that there were two factions in the Wolverton mosque."

He described an earlier incident in January, when the two factions had fought and Atiq Rehman had allegedly stabbed Usman Ali.

The court has struggled to accommodate the family members who have followed the trial since it began last Monday.

Yesterday they were issued with tickets so that they could take turns in the busy public gallery.

The jury watched CCTV footage showing Atiq Rehman being cornered in the Costcutter store at The Square, in Wolverton, on May 15 last year.

He was seen escaping into the street, where he was attacked with a snooker cue and metal pole and left motionless in a gutter.

He died two days later in hospital from severe head injuries.

At trial 26-year-old taxi driver Ghur Rehman, (not related to Atiq) of Cambridge Street, Wolverton, told the jury he was trying to pull Atiq Rehman free, not attack him.

But he admitted lying to police about his whereabouts, telling them he had been at home when the incident occurred.

David Spens, representing Ghur Rehman, said that neither defendent was carrying a weapon and his client was shocked and horrified by the incident.

Judge Bevan said: "Ghur Rehman was clearly involved but who's side is he on?

"Is he with the attacking force or doing his best to protect Atiq Rehman, getting him out of the shop to give him a chance to escape?

"Is his involvement on the side of his brothers and cousins or his long term friend Atiq?"

William Harbage, representing Mr Awan, 22, said his client "did nothing" and was "entirely passive" as Atiq Rehman was murdered.

He said: "There's no evidence that he lends any support to the joint enterprise or joins in in any way.

"He has his hand in his pocket from start to finish."

The prosecution had earlier alleged that Mr Awan played the part of lookout outside the Costcutters store and that the two defendents were part of a 'joint enterprise'.

Judge Bevan said the jury has to decide whether the men played a 'deliberate and knowing role in the enterprise'.

Two of the attackers, Bilal Zaman, 21, and Usman Ali, 20, of Cambridge Street, Wolverton, have pleaded guilty to murder and will be sentenced once the trial is concluded.

Bus drivers consider strike action

BUS drivers in Milton Keynes are considering strike action.

Employees of bus company Arriva are holding a ballot on whether to take industrial action over pay and working conditions.

A strike could affect services in Milton Keynes and across the region.

A spokesman for Arriva said: "Trade union Unite is seeking the opinion of its members with a view to resorting to strike action if some current issues cannot be amicably resolved.

"A meeting between theu nion and management will take place this Thursday to seek agreement.

"The senior management team meets regularly with the members of the union that represent our staff and is confident that matters can be resolved without the need for strike action to be taken."

Unite was not available for comment at the time of going to press.

Travellers delayed as rail signals fail

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

PASSENGERS faced long delays yesterday after problems with signals in Milton Keynes.

The signals, between Milton Keynes Central and Denbigh, were reported faulty at around 10am on Tuesday.

The problem affected trains on the West Coast Mainline between Euston and Rugby.

A spokesman for Network Rail said they had engineers on the site from around 10.15am yesterday.

"It affected a lot of the line and we halted trains in Euston and Rugby," she said.

It was not until the afternoon that they were able to open up the line to 80 per cent of services, after engineers put in place a temporary fix on the fast lines.

At around 4.30pm the engineers were still working on fixing a fault with the power supply to the signals by relaying cables and installing a bigger generator.

Some services were delayed by up to three hours by the incident and many were cancelled.

A spokesman for Virgin Trains estimated that around 25,000 people using the line had been affected.

"We were not able to run any services at all for two hours," he said.

"Usually we would run around seven in and seven out of Euston every hour, so that gives you an idea of the scale."

The Network Rail spokesman added that the fault was not been caused by works carried out on the line over the bank holiday weekend, which she said had run smoothly and on schedule.

An investigation will be launched by Network Rail to assess the cause of the fault.

Cannabis find in new house

ONE hundred cannabis plants were uncovered during a police drugs raid at a newly built house.

Officers raided the property at 12.45pm last Friday after a tip-off from a member of the public.

Inside they found 100 fully cultivated cannabis plants but no one was at the home.

The house is next door to Conservative Cllr Andy Dransfield in London Road, Loughton.

He said: "I was surpised to hear what had happened. You are supposed to be able to smell the drugs but I was completely unaware what was inside."

No arrests have been made but investigations are ongoing.

Woman found dead in street identified

A WOMAN who was found dead in the street has been identified by police.

The body of 51-year-old Margaret Ali, from Bletchley, was found by a member of the public near to Serpentine Court on Windermere Drive, Bletchley just before 8.30am on Monday.

Ambulance paramedics pronounced her dead at the scene.

A post-mortem examination was carried out yesterday and results are awaited from toxicology tests.

Police arrested a 41-year-old man from Milton Keynes on suspicion of murder but he was released on bail until June.

Detective Chief Inspector George Bain, senior investigating officer, said: "Margaret was from Bletchley and people in the area would have known her. I am appealing for anyone who saw her between 10am and midnight on Saturday (26/4) to contact me."

DCI Bain can be contacted via the Police Enquiry Centre on 0845 8 505 505 or call the charity Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.

Tom Valentine outside his home: A councillor said the windows are too small

100 tenants call for bigger windows after councillor says existing ones are too small

MORE than 100 council tenants have signed a petition demanding that the council replace their windows after one resident was told that his were too small.

Cllr Chris Williams made the comment during a meeting of the Development and Control Committee last week.

A home owner in Gloucester Road, Greenleys, had applied for an extension but a neighbour, Tom Valentine, was concerned that it would block out sunlight because of the close proximity to his windows.

Mr Valentine, said: "Cllr Williams referred to the size of our windows and said they were too small so daylight was limited.

"But it was his judgement that the proposed application would not worsen the situation.

"I can't understand it because he's saying our windows are too small."

Despite Cllr Williams' admission about the windows, the application for the extension was passed.

Now residents in the area have signed a petition asking that Milton Keynes Council replaces the windows of every house with larger ones.

Yesterday Cllr Williams stood by his comments, stating he would support a petition to make the windows bigger.

He told MK NEWS: "The windows in these houses are quite small – I thought they were like postage stamps.

"They're not very high so not much sunlight gets through but the extension doesn't have any impact whatsoever.

"I would probably support them in their petition."

Inquest verdict prompts review

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

THE Crown Prosecution Service may review the case of a man who was unlawfully killed in a city nightclub.

Last week a jury found that Simon McCarthy, from Langford, Bedfordshire, who died while celebrating his 35th birthday at Oceana, at the Xscape was unlawfully killed.

The four-day inquest, which ended on Thursday (April 1), heard how Mr McCarthy died after an altercation with the club's door staff on Saturday, February 24, 2007.

The jury returned a verdict that he died of injuries caused by compression of the neck during positional restraint.

Nine people were arrested following the incident but all subsequently released without charge following a police investigation and referral to the Crown Prosecution Service.

A spokesman for the CPS Thames Valley said yesterday: "In all cases review is a continuing process and as such consideration will be given to the verdict of the coroner's court."

Deputy coroner Tom Osborne said he would be sending a report of the proceedings to the Security Industry Authority, responsible for training door staff nationally.

He said it had become apparent during proceedings that door staff had not been given practical training in restraint and this should be considered.

In a statement after the verdict the family's representative Robert Bedford said they are still very angry at the unnecessary loss of life of a caring father and partner.

"They are angry that Simon will never see his children grow up and that five young children have been deprived of the love and support of the father who cared for them," he said.

"The family welcome the jury's verdict today, but they know that this is just the first step on the journey to ensure that Jane and the children receive full compensation for a tragedy that should never have been allowed to happen."

Earlier in the week the inquest heard how Mr McCarthy, who was 6ft 8 inches tall and weighed 24 stone, struggled with the club's security staff and was restrained on the ground, along with his brother Mark and his brother's girlfriend.

An emotional Mark McCarthy told the inquest they were surrounded by up to 12 bouncers and felt intimidated.

He said the bouncers attacked them dragging them to the floor and pinning them down.

"They basically beat us and beat my brother to death," he claimed.

The door staff told the inquest McCarthy's group were aggressive, threw punches, kicked and bit them, and needed to be controlled.

While held on the floor face down by up to five door staff Mr McCarthy stopped breathing and efforts to resuscitate him were unsuccessful.

He was confirmed dead at Milton Keynes Hospital just after 4am.

Dr Robert Chapman, consultant pathologist, said he died of compression injuries to his neck consistent with having been held in a head lock or by a hand.

Mr McCarthy also had bruises on many parts of his body including his face, arms, chest and back.

It's nice to be nice

SIR – I would like to address the ongoing concerns of redway users, be they cyclists, dog walkers, parents with pushchairs, or just plain lone walkers.

It seems that each of these has a problem with one or more of the others.

In response to last week's letter entitled 'Dog do run run' I feel an urge to ask the writer to try to avoid his 'daily' confrontations on the redway with other users.

Is he not a little stressed by this pastime?

I note he says that many dog-walkers are very considerate towards other redway users, so surely the odd exceptions (who apparently don't care) will not be reborn after a preaching from him? The ideal scenario on these occasions would be a policeman wandering along at the time, but now I'm getting ridiculous.

I seem to have had a different experience from this gentleman.

As a full-time cyclist, luckily, I have never encountered a problem on the redway, and my theory is that most people are basically nice to you if you're nice to them.

Please note I don't have a dog, so this is not a biased viewpoint. If I see a walker and their dog up ahead of me, I immediately slow down so that they know I appreciate they've got every right to be on that path as much as I have and this includes the dog, bless them.

They have a right to a happy walk without a stranger begrudging them a few minutes off the lead, even if they do stray onto the path.

In response to my caution, they will in turn show that they appreciate this and will exercise their own caution, by calling Fido to heal, keeping the dog close to them as I pass.

As for relieving themselves right in the middle of the path (the dogs, that is), this is rare, and rarer still if accompanied by a caring owner.

The only 'confrontations' I have ever experienced are an exchange of smiles after the walker can see that I do not expect them to do a side-ways dive in order to get out of my way; we pass each other carefully; I smile at the dog like a mad-woman and continue on my way.

I have never smiled so much as since I became a full-time cyclist, and it feels good.

Lastly, on the cyclists' bell issue, I agree it's a good idea to use it. But once, I dinged my bell and the people took no notice at all. Then, when I caught up with them to pass, it turned out I knew them - and they admitted that if they'd known it was me they would have acknowledged it.

Instead, they viewed it as an arrogant 'get out of the way' message from a random cyclist, so ignored it. I do have mixed feelings on the bell issue.

I wish everyone would just be a little nicer to each other I suppose.

Vote changer

SIR – Thank you for your coverage of Gordon Brown's visit to Bletchley last week, I assume that this was a pre-election visit to reward Dr Starkey for her continued loyal service to the Labour party.

If the visit was designed to boost turnout at the local elections it worked. I wasn't going to bother to vote, but seeing the man responsible for scrapping the 10p tax rate I went straight to the polling booth and voted Conservative for the first time in my life.

Will it be possible to get him back before the General Election as well?
Mr T Martin
Bletchley

■ SIR – Once again last week's Milton Keynes Council election has shown that the local Labour party is losing support among its members and this can be attributed to the way in which the local party is run. It is beyond beggars belief that they are losing seats in Bletchley and Wolverton.

Milton Keynes Labour Party is run mainly by semi-retired old people and it has failed to recruit young people and from black and Asian communities. The party is recycling the same old candidates every year without giving chance to new and young faces. Some of them do not live in the area and are out of touch with the local people.

On the other hand the other two main parties are bold enough to nominate candidates new and young and from black and Asian communities. In a multi-racial and multi-ethnic Milton Keynes society it is essential that blacks and Asians are encouraged to take part in the political system by nominating them in the local elections. It is not a question whether they win or not and it is their participation in the main stream politics is very essential.

Milton Keynes Labour Party should modernise its local party hierarchy by bringing new young white and black and Asian members in the management committee and nominating them in the next council election which is due only in 2010.

The 'Dads Army' brigade in the Labour Party is not going to attract young voters. It is high time that they learn from Conservative and Lib-Dem parties.
Name and address supplied

■ SIR – I wish to thank the 173 residents of Middleton Ward who voted for me in the local council election .

It was an honour to be the Labour Party candidate in such a large and diverse ward.

I hope Milton Keynes Council managed its target for voter turn out for the future sake of democracy but time will tell once all the figures have been analysed.

Milton Keynes Labour Party members fought a positive campaign through out Milton Keynes in all weathers bringing Labour's positive message to voters.

It will not be to long before Milton Keynes will have a Labour council delivering on its policies to create a better quality of life for all residents living in this great city of ours.
Brian Barton
Labour Party Candidate for Middleton Ward

Find new homes before demolition of old ones

SIR – Few people will fail to feel some sympathy for Rob Caulfield and Amanda Selby, not to mention their unborn child.

Having to sleep in a garden shed is hardly a bed of roses and to have lost the roof they did have over their head can only have aggravated things.

This case raises several questions. Perhaps the first one is the wisdom of Mr Caulfield getting his girlfriend pregnant in the first place, given his previous circumstances.

It is not a light thing for a man and woman to physically consummate a relationship, and the possibility of pregnancy is just one consideration.

Parenthood is no sinecure at the best of times, which is why in almost all cultures marriage prior to having children is viewed as a necessity.

However, the council is not totally free from criticism either. Not having lived in the Snowberry Close area of Stacey Bushes I cannot, of course, comment first-hand.

However, is it totally beyond the wit and wisdom of city hall to arrange for current residents to be found alternative accommodation before sending in the bulldozers?

It is not a light thing to demolish otherwise good homes and, if it has been the activities of some ne'er-do-wells that have blighted those flats, then the proper thing to do is to proceed against the wrongdoers rather than the victims.

The third consideration seems to be the sheer cost of finding accommodation anywhere in Milton Keynes these days.

Even if you are in employment it seems to be a chicken and egg situation: no job, no income, therefore no prospect of getting your own property; no property, no prospect of a job.

Nor does it help when the only jobs available seem to be largely white collar affairs, or are described in terms that defy easy interpretation, or else do not yield the remuneration required to obtain one's own property.

It would almost seem that despite the criticism levelled at them, homes in multiple occupation are filling a need not satisfied by other agencies.

One can only wish Mr Caulfield and Miss Selby well in finding both accommodation and, in his case, a suitable job that he can hold down.

But did their situation have to arise in the first place?

Barry Gowland
Penryn Avenue, Fishermead

Defying the odds

SIR – Paul Ince has defied the notion that good players don't always make good managers.

He has been brilliant for the Dons who have had an exceptional season and things can only get better for Incey.

Amazing that lads like Southgate can get a job straight in the Premiership while lads like Ince have to prove themselves in the lower leagues.

Decent offers will certainly come and it couldn't happen to a nicer lad. Ince was the best holding midfielder in English football.

Great for Ince and the long suffering Dons fans.
Name and address supplied

■ SIR – What a fantastic day out it was on Saturday at the Dons.

Not only was it a record crowd but it showed what a fantastic community club the Dons are too.

Everywhere you looked there were families with children and in many cases even their grandparents present.

The whole day was a fitting end to a briliant season for the Dons and I for one will be back there next season with my family to cheer on the boys.
Mr P Jones

Estates gateway artwork unveiled

A PROJECT bringing public art to four city estates is launched tomorrow.

'On the Verge' will display ten banners marking road gateways on the four estates in Fishermead, Conniburrow, Oldbrook and Bradwell Common.

On the Verge has been initiated and managed by artist Myriam Metcalf with support from a group of local representatives who have knowledge and an interest in the four participating estates.

Four local artists led digital photography workshops with local schools and community groups. The workshop participants were invited to use photography to illustrate how they felt about their estate and what made their neighbourhood special.

Following on from this community consultation, five national artists, Boyd & Evans, Judy Foote, Taslim Martin, James O'Hanlon and Ruth Spaak, were invited to create a set of large temporary banners, inspired by the ideas generated by the workshop participants.

Milton Keynes based artists Boyd & Evans have created banners to celebrate the place and people of Oldbrook. One banner highlights the urban layout, architecture and the open spaces and the other shows images of school children from the estate. This work has a particular Resonance for the artists as Oldbrook was their first home when they moved to Milton Keynes in 1982. One of the other commissioned artists, Ruth Spaak said 'I think banners should have a strong, heraldic, iconic identity- they should be easy to 'read' and understand and I have tried to underline the positive upbeat qualities which the Conniburrow area warrants.'

On the Verge Project Manager Myriam Metcalf said 'When walking or driving around Central Milton Keynes it is difficult for visitors and newcomers to identify these estates, the banners will facilitate navigation while at the same time landmarking and livening up the main gateways to these neighbourhoods. Milton Keynes is in many ways a misunderstood town, those who do not live there dismiss it as the land of roundabouts and concrete cows. The banners produced by the artists reflect a completely different perception of the city and their neighbourhood.'

The On the Verge banners will be on display until the end of 2008.

The project was made possible by the support of Abbey Charitable Trust, The National Lottery, Midsummer Housing, Campbell Park Parish Council, Local Network Fund and Milton Keynes Community Foundation, Milton Keynes Council, Culture MK, the Print Foundation, Inter-Action MK, Routes2Success and Make a Difference.

MK Hospital still on alert for winter vomiting bug

MILTON Keynes Hospital is still on high alert for a winter vomiting disease.

The hospital is reminding visitors to stay away if they have any symptoms of the highly contagious norovirus.

The hospital and the Primary Care Trust (PCT) remain on high alert as the virus has remained in the community past the winter season.

Angie Legate, assistant director of infection prevention and control said: "The norovirus does not discriminate by season.

"Safety is our top priority and it's very important that people who have had the virus, or been in close contact with someone who has had it, take precautions to avoid spreading it.

"People should refrain from visiting the hospital or nursing homes if they have had the bug over the past three days.

"We also recommend that all visitors wash their hands with warm water and soap and use the alcohol foam rub available throughout the hospital."

The first signs of norovirus infection are usually a sudden onset of nausea, followed by projectile vomiting and diarrhoea.

These may be accompanied by a mild fever, headaches, stomach cramps or aching limbs.

A spokesman for the hospital added: "It is important to note that this is not a healthcare associated infection, but one that spreads very quickly in areas where people are present in large numbers – this can be anywhere from the local supermarket to a healthcare setting.

"Milton Keynes Hospital undertakes all precautions necessary to help prevent and contain this unpleasant stomach bug.

"Additional environmental cleaning by a dedicated team is continuing.

"Hand hygiene has been reinforced for all staff, patients and visitors. All staff are aware that soap and water should be used prior to alcohol based foam when at work."

Muggers use axe and knife

A MAN was threatened by three men who used an axe and a knife to rob him.

The victim was ambushed outside the Spar shop in Walnut Tree, between 6.10pm and 6.30pm last Friday, April 25.

The men threatened him with a knife and axe and demanded his mobile phone and money.

The victim handed them over before the offenders fled in a small white vehicle.

Detective Constable Susan Herbert said: "This was a particularly disturbing robbery due to the nature of the weapons.

"The victim was not injured but left shaken and it is crucial we find the offenders so they can not commit this crime again."

Police described the first man as white, around 18-years-old, approximately 5ft 6ins and slim.

He had a goatee beard, dark short hair and was wearing a grey or white jumper.

Happy to still be the party with the most seats the Lib Dems after the count had finished

Lib Dems cling on despite Tory gains

Labour lose four seats as voters turn on national government

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

Uroy Clarke is congratulated by Labour's Gladstone McKenzie (right) after he lost his seat to the Conservative

THE Liberal Democrats have clung onto their perch as the Tories closed the gap at this year's local election.

The Conservative party gained five seats in Milton Keynes while the Lib Dems lost two and won one.

Labour suffered the most, losing four seats including Bletchley and Fenny Stratford, Stantonbury and Whaddon to the Tories.

Despite major gains the Tories could not take overall control and the Lib Dems remain the biggest party by one seat.

For the third successive year no party will have overall control of Milton Keynes Council.

The Lib Dems now hold 21 seats, the Conservatives 20 and Labour 10.

The overall turnout was 49,358, 35.63 per cent, down on the 37 per cent of last year.

The contest was particularly close in Whaddon, where Conservatives took the seat from Labour by 57 votes, in Middleton where the Lib Dems beat Conservatives by 120 votes and, Walton Park where the Lib Dems kept the Conservatives at bay by 125 votes.

The battle for Wolverton, a previous Labour stronghold, was won by the Lib Dems as Mike Galloway beat Labour's Jessica Holroyd by 152 votes.

Cllr Galloway said: "Its a reward for a lot of hard work over several years and now we can get some proper representation for people in the whole of the Wolverton area."

Isobel McCall, leader of the Lib Dem party which has survived despite recent controversy over the school build programme, added: "I think we have done considerably better than a lot of people thought we would do.

"We are only one seat down overall, we are still the largest party and we have made our first gain in six years in a former Labour heartland."

Cllr Norman Miles, Labour group secretary, said his party was sad to see a number of their councillors go but are looking to the future.

"We have received the same treatment as the party has nationally, we accept that and must build on that," he said.

"Our first job is to represent the electorate of Milton Keynes and we will continue to be a constructive opposition party.

"Although we have lost a number of seats the number of votes is not enormous, none of it is irretrievable and life goes in cycles and so does politics."

Leader of the Conservative party, Cllr Andrew Geary said: "The electorate is clearly putting its faith in the Conservative party, they are clearly showing that the way that we have gone, the message we have sold is what they want to hear and they have turned out and voted for us in droves.

"It significantly weakens what the administration are able to do and they have an opposition that's hot on their heels.

"It has been snapping at them for a while but now it has caught them, held them, but it hasn't overtaken them."

Week-long blitz nets speeders

ROADS police stopped 175 drivers for speeding in Milton Keynes during a Europe-wide safety week.

Road Safety Sergeant Chris Appleby, along with officers from Roads Policing and Road Safety Officers (RSOs) from Milton Keynes Council carried out 16 checks from Monday, April 21 to Sunday, April 27.

A total of 142 drivers were stopped and issued with Fixed Penalty Notices of £60 and three penalty points by officers from Milton Keynes Roads Policing Department.

Twenty six drivers were stopped and received roadside education from the council Road Safety Officer.

Five drivers were reported for excess speed and will be summonsed to court, while wo cars were also seized for being driven without insurance.

Sgt Appleby said: "It's disappointing that in just one week, 175 people were stopped for speeding. "When consulting with our communities speeding is often set as one of the top priorities and checks like this give us the opportunity to tackle problems within these neighbourhoods.

"Speed limits are there for a reason and exceeding them is dangerous and puts other road users at risk as well as themselves."

Hundreds pay respects at former deputy head's memorial service

HUNDREDS of former pupils and colleagues attended a memorial service following the death of a popular schoolteacher.

Former Lord Grey deputy head Linda Lennox died at Milton Keynes Hospital on Sunday, April 20. She had been diagnosed with ovarian cancer four years ago.

An inquest into her death heard that 56-year-old Mrs Lennox had undergone chemotherapy and surgery but the cancer recurred a year ago.

She had been in and out of hospital in the weeks leading to her death.

Her son, John Lennox, claimed she contracted the clostridium difficile infection (c.diff) three weeks before she died.

Mrs Lennox was readmitted to the hospital on April 17 with a suspected bowl obstruction. She deteriorated and died three days later.

The coroner is awaiting the results of a postmortem to establish a clear cause of death. The inquest was adjourned until June.

Mr Lennox said his mother was a 'fine lady' and that the family hope for some closure from the inquest.

He added that within 24 hours of a group being set up on social networking website Facebook in tribute of his mother, 400 messages had been written Mrs Lennox, who had two children, was born in Sunderland.

The memorial service took place at The Church of Christ the Cornerstone last Wednesday and was led by Rev Mindy Miller.

Friends paid tribute to Linda with readings, poem and song and Lord Grey School choir sang "Hero", before close family and friend travelled to Crownhill Crematorium.

A stitch for time on show in cafe

MILTON Keynes Community Foundation is currently displaying the, MK40 Tapestry in the Eat & Meet Cafe of Acorn House.

Marian Bennett, grants manager for the foundation said: "The MK40 Tapestry Project was a unique opportunity for dozens of schools and hundreds of children across Milton Keynes to take part in the MK40 celebrations, creating a lasting memento of the anniversary. We were delighted to be able to award £7,500 to enable this to happen."

The finished tapestry is a fantastic, colourful piece of art, made up of different canvases created by each of the schools that took part.

Anyone who visited the tapestry at thecentre:mk will have seen just how impressive it is, and we're very pleased that it will be living at Acorn House until it finds a more permanent home.

New shop to enhance centre's assets

SHOPPING in the city is getting a boost.

A new Bravissimo store specialising in lingerie and swimwear is to open at thecentre:mk.

It will be the first regional shopping mall to house one of the shops.

The retailer has signed to take a 263 sq m (2,836 sq ft) unit on Silbury Arcade leading to House of Fraser and Patisserie Valerie.

Jo Lee, Bravissimo's Marketing Director, said: "Bravissimo provides a wide range of lingerie and swimwear in D-K cup in a host of different styles as well as clothing designed especially for big boobed women.

"We have selected our locations for expansion very carefully and thecentre:mk provides just the right demographic and regional pull that our business requires. We know from our website and mail order businesses that this is a very strong market and we are excited about the opening of our store at the centre."

The unit will be Bravissimo's 20th in the UK and has been let on a ten year lease.

Martin Fleishman, Asset Manager for thecentre:mk, said: "Bravissimo will occupy a prime location for quality brands in thecentre:mk, on the mall leading to House of Fraser.

"With three neighbouring refurbished units becoming available this summer, the Bravissimo letting supports our strategy to create a zone of quality top brands at this end of Silbury Arcade that will complement the opposite end of the centre where retailers include John Lewis, Hawes & Curtis and Jaeger."

Fight Royal Mail sorting office closure

SIR – Re the proposed closure of Milton Keynes sorting ofice.

The Royal Mail announced to the union reps on Friday prior to the bank holiday weekend that it is to close the above centre in May/June 2010.

The Royal Mail Board intend to make their preferred option for a new site early in June.

There are three options all between Junction 15 and 16 on the M1.

The proposal is the almagamation of Coventry, Northampton, and Milton Keynes into one mail centre facility.

The proposed staffing level for the new site according to the Royal Mail is 517 full time and 156 part time staff. This does not include engineers, cleaners, and catering staff.

All existing outward, national and international work and postcodes MK1 -MK44 will move to the new site.

This will have a very serious effect on the local community. Once again Royal Mail are treating their employees disgracefully with at present no offer of alternative employment or a voluntary severance package and with very little time for consultation.

Employees fhat are fortunate to get a job there will have a 25 mile trip with no publictransport and will be forced to use their car.

We the public should do all we can to put pressure on the Royal Mail to stop the closure and proposed move to Northampton .

Election thanks

SIR – As the successful candidate in Loughton Park ward for this year's local elections, may I express my gratitude to the residents who took time and trouble to extend what amounts to a vote of confidence in me for my past work on their behalf?

Councillors are the servants of the people, not the gauleiters of officialdom. The residents endorsed this by giving me the biggest majority, 1,223, of any councillor in this year's elections and this is a tremendous reward.

The Loughton Park result also fires a shot across the bows of those who feel that being a councillor means using their position to impose central government diktat on the people of Milton Keynes, whether that be more traveller sites or pointless wind farms (at the behest of Brussels) or forced expansion of the city via English Partnerships.

I can promise that the Conservative Party in MK, of which I am a part, will not put its feet up. We will task ourselves to work on behalf of the city's residents. And I shall continue to do my very best to represent the views of ALL the residents of Loughton Park.

Cllr Don Hoyle

Regular fish market proves a real catch

LOCH Fyne's new open air fish market is proving a great success.

The market takes place on Saturday mornings outside Loch Fyne restaurant at The Hub (situated between the railway station and shopping centres).

The market is next in town on Saturday, May 24 from 9am and will sell a choice of popular wet fish and shellfish.

Pre-orders are also welcome and will ensure customers are not disappointed.

Anne-Marie Mckeown, general manager, said: "The fish market has been such a tremendous success so it will now be a regular monthly feature outside our restaurant at The Hub."

Design a good health poster and win prizes

THE NHS marks its 60th anniversary this summer and it is looking for young people in the city to help celebrate the occasion.

The Milton Keynes Primary Care Trust (PCT), which is responsible for providing all community-based health services in Milton Keynes, from GPs and opticians to community hospitals and district nurses, is using the anniversary to look at how it can provide healthcare in the future.

As part of this the trust is organising a poster competition for young people. There are three age group categories: five to eight, nine to 12 and 13 to 16.

Each age group is being asked to design a poster which reflects good health and encourages people to lead healthier lives. It could be a picture of people exercising, giving up smoking or anything else that captures their imagination. A winner from each category will be awarded with a £50 Home Retail Group (Argos and Homebase) gift voucher and a certificate at a special event on July 2.

The three winners' posters will also be printed and displayed in GP surgeries, dentists, opticians, pharmacies, schools, libraries and other venues across the city.

Entries must be submitted to the Communications and Public Engagement Office, Milton Keynes PCT, Hospital Campus, Eaglestone, Milton Keynes, MK6 5NG, by Friday, June 13, 2008.

Those who enter the competition should put their name, age and school or home address on the back of their poster.

For further information contact Christopher Knibb, at the PCT, on 243362.

Agency calls for special needs carers

AN adoption agency is calling for people who have experience of caring for people with special needs.

St Francis' Children's Society has launched a new project as the Adoption Register for England and Wales has shown that over 80 per cent of the 4,000 children waiting have some form of special need.

These needs can range from dyspraxia to a more profound disability.

The Widening Horizons Project is an innovative initiative to help find more adopters for all sorts of children, including those with special needs.

The project aims to 'widen the horizons' of people who are considering adoption.

Jessica Hibbert senior social worker at the charity said: "There's a desperate need for people who could consider caring for children with additional needs, particularly with learning and physical difficulties, delayed development and health needs. These are children who often wait longest for a family.

"Many potential adopters are concerned that children may not reach independence or may have a limited life expectancy, yet this is certainly not always the case.

"Many additional needs, such as autism and cerebral palsy are on a spectrum.

"Each child is first and foremost an individual andeach has differentneeds.

"The Widening Horizon's project not only recruits adopters but is developing extra support to ensure that placements are successful."

The society is holding an open evening at their offices in Collis House, Newport Road, Woolstone on Tuesday May 20 from 6.30pm to 8.30pm.

Anyone who is considering adoption is welcome..

For more information on attending call Chris Large on 01908 572700.

Win a Pampers Easy Ups Boddler Bedtime pack

MK News has teamed up with Pampers Easy Ups nappies to offer one lucky reader the chance to win a set of goodies that will help you get your Boddler settled into bed more easily.

Pampers understands that there is a transitional stage in your child's development when independence is growing day by day and she's starting to become more restless during nappy changes and wilful at bedtime.

She's not a baby any more, but not a toddler yet either... she's a Boddler.

We have one Pampers Easy Ups Boddler Bedtime pack up for grabs, worth over £150.

The goodies have been compiled using the '3 Bs' of the Pampers Boddler bedtime routine, 'Bath, Book and Bed', created by sleep expert Luci Wiggs.

"To get your Boddler into a bedtime routine, just follow these simple '3 Bs', give her a warm bath, read a book together ideally in her room with the lights down low- before snuggling her down in her own bed to sleep," she said.

The prize packs consists of a selection of fun bath toys, interactive pop-up books, a set of bed covers and three months' supply of Pampers Easy Ups.

Pampers Easy Ups nappies help take your Boddler from day to night as the 12-hour absorbency means that not only can your Boddler have the independence to pull their nappy up and down during the day, you don't need to trigger a tantrum by reverting to 'baby' nappies at bedtime.

HOW TO ENTER

To be in with a chance of winning the prize pack just answer this question: What are the '3 B's' of Pampers' Boddler bedtime routine?

Answers on a postcard to Pampers competition, MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, MK15 ODU or by email to competitions@mk-news.co.uk

Please include your name, address and daytime telephone numbers.

Wolverton rail users to get new red brick station building

New ticket office plans approved

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

PLANS to improve Wolverton Railway Station are steaming ahead.

The proposals to replace the existing Portakabin-type ticket office were given the green light by Milton Keynes Council's development control committee on Thursday, April 17.

The application sought permission to demolish the existing temporary ticket office and replace it with a red brick station building in a new location on the site.

The car park is to be improved and the parking layout revised.

The existing concrete stair access from Stratford Road bridge is to be demolished and replaced by new stairs directly to the east of the station building.

The improvements are to be made using £1.8 million of Government growth funding.

It is anticipated that construction will commence late summer/early autumn.

Sky's the limit in sunflower comp

THE search is on for Milton Keynes' tallest sunflower.

The Parks Trust has launched a sunflower competition for all primary schools to discover which class can grow the tallest sunflower in the city.

Each primary school has been given some sunflower seeds for the giant yellow type of sunflower which can grow up to 2.7 metres.

Growing sunflowers is a great way for children to learn how to take care of plants and enjoy gardening. Sunflowers attract bird and insect life and can inspire kids to discover more about nature, animals, birds and plants in a fun and exciting way.

School children are being asked to grow a sunflower and measure it weekly to see which class has managed to grow the tallest flower.

At the end of the summer each school will enter the measurement for their sunflower at its tallest height and submit the results with photographs to The Parks Trust. The deadline for entries is September 12. The Parks Trust will compare the heights of sunflowers from all schools and announce a winner at the end of September.

Each class that enters has the chance to win a variety of wildlife prizes for their school, including: a bird table starter set, butterfly feeding station, garden maypole and a bird box with a digital camera.

Rachel Sutton, Education Ranger at The Parks Trust, said: "The bright and charismatic sunflower is great for inspiring children to grow things and appreciate nature. We offer a variety of learning activities for schools and we wanted to encourage each class to discover how enjoyable learning about plants, trees and wildlife really is."

The competition is supported by Sutton Seeds through the donation of sunflower seeds and Reflections on Learning which provided the wildlife gardening prizes.

Any primary school wishing to enter the competition should contact The Parks Trust on 01908 233600 or email info@theparkstrust.com. For growing tips and activities visit www.theparkstrust.com.

Students of Lord Grey School with Head Teacher Jill Coughlan, Richard Moses of DRC Locums, MK Dons representative Matt Cove and Countec EBP Work Experience team

Students' score in Dons work experience game

BY ROB GIBSON
rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

STUDENTS were treated to complementary tickets to see MK Dons after successfully completing work experience placements.

The "Reward for Excellence" scheme aims to recognise the achievement of students and the part that companies in Milton Keynes play in teaching them vital employment skills.

Pupils from Lord Grey School joined their teachers, local business representatives and the Countec Education Business Partnership team at stadiummk to launch the project.

The youngsters received complementary tickets to watch the Dons after attaining a rating of 'excellence' on their work placement which is rigorously scrutinised by the school's strict criteria.

Nigel Handyside, Deputy Headteacher at Lord Grey School said: "We're delighted that the work experience has been so successful for our students.

"The remaining half of Year 10 goes out on work experience for the first week after the Spring break.

"We wish them all good luck in this extremely valuable element of their education."

MK Dons have supported Countec EBP for the past five years by taking work experience students to work within all aspects of the club including with the Head Groundsman who tends the £1m pitch.

MK Dons Chairman Pete Winkelman said: "MK Dons have developed an innovative community programme and made enormous efforts in trying to make the club accessible to all parts of Milton Keynes and the surrounding area.

"We're delighted to support Countec's work experience scheme as it not only enables us to reinforce the values we pride ourselves on, it also helps to develop the future leaders of Milton Keynes."

Sculptures bring Bletchley's past to the present

FOUR pieces of street art which reflect the history of Bletchley have been unveiled.

The sculptures, unveiled last Friday, April 24, have been placed in the Bletchley Community Orchard, on Manor Fields.

They represent the history of Bletchley and Fenny Stratford across the millennium.

One depicts Roman soldiers from 'Maglovinium', the name of Fenny Stratford 2000 years ago when it was a Roman transit camp.

Others reflect a stage coach running down the A5 toll road and a steam engine symbolising the importance of the railway in Bletchley's past.

The £3,000 project, by artist Sandy Reid-Miller, was funded by Bletchley and Fenny Stratford Town Council.

Council Rangers come out to play

MILTON Keynes Council has launched a new initiative to give children and young people more opportunities to play and take part in activities outdoors with the appointment of three Play Rangers.

They will complement the work of the Play Development section.

Paid for by The Big Lottery Fund, the team encourages children and young people to explore and use their local environment for play, including creative opportunities like den building, kit making, woodwork and physical activities such as zip wire, skateboards and sports.

There will also be 'discovery' play, involving learning about the elements through activities such as toasting marshmallows with friends and exploring the natural world. All the activities are free of charge.

The Minister of Sport, Gerry Sutcliffe, and Adrian Voce, director of Play England, recently visited a Play Rangers session and met with local children and the Play Rangers who were out playing and preparing breakfast.

Dave Butler, Play Rangers team leader, said, "The Play Rangers will help encourage healthy lifestyles and foster a greater sense of community involvement while giving children and young people more chances to take part in fun, positive, play activities."

Play Rangers: Gemma Simmons, Suzie Wall and Lucie Gillespie

The three Milton Keynes Play Rangers are Lucie Gillespie, Gemma Simmons, and Suzie Wall who will work in Conniburrow local park, Spider Park at Fullers Slade, Langland Park in Netherfield and Windermere Drive Play Area on the Lakes Estate.

■ To find out more about Play Rangers and when they're scheduled to visit your area, contact the Play Ranger Team on 01908 253609.

Win a trip on the Orient Express

CELEBRATE a Family Father's Day and win a Trip on The Orient Express

The ExtraCare Charitable Trust has teamed up with MK NEWS inviting you to join residents from the Charity's newly-opened Lovat Fields Retirement Village in Willen, on a walk with a difference, around the beautiful North Willen Lake, on Father's Day, Sunday, June 15.

Called the 'Brolly Walk,' ExtraCare invites you to bring your own umbrella, decorated on the theme of 'countries around the world', and join up to 1000 ExtraCare residents and friends. With themed activities along the way, this entertaining celebration promises to surprise and delight with prizes for all. You could even win a trip on the Orient Express Train!

Designed to attract young and old, in fact the whole family, the route is one-and-a-half-miles long and accessible, even for those with wheelchairs.

Sponsorship money from this family day out will be used to fund ExtraCare's Health and Well-being Service at the newly opened Lovat Fields Retirement Village and other ExtraCare retirement schemes – it's an award-winning initiative which benefits village residents and older people across the City.

If you want to find out more about the walk, please contact ExtraCare's Sue Bromfield for information. Mobile: 07825 426574, or e-mail: sue.bromfield@extracare.org.uk

All you have to do is complete and send in the coupon and your entry will be entered into a prize draw. The prize is for two tickets on the The Orient Express, "Northern Belle". Departing from Milton Keynes, the day-long tour allows the winners to enjoy fine cuisine in sumptuous surroundings as the world-famous train rolls gently through the English countryside. The Northern Belle embodies the distinctive opulence and craftsmanship associated with the classic 'Belle' trains of the 1930s. Expertly and exquisitely detailed, each carriage bears the name of a stately home and is furnished with specially commissioned designs, fabrics and beautiful marquetry. Exquisitely laid tables with starched table branded silverware, emphasize the level of sumptuosity; the artistic adornment and luxurious furnishings complete the elegant and comfortable carriages.

Sun shines on Bletchley school

A BLETCHLEY school has switched-on to green energy by installing solar panels

Pupils at Lord Grey School in Bletchley officially plugged in the new technology with The Co-operative's colourful climate change character, Sunny Solar last week.

The panels have been given to the school in the latest round of The Co-operative's £1m national Green Energy for Schools scheme, which will provide free solar panels to 100 schools.

The rooftop solar panels generate renewable electricity which will reduce the school's reliance on fossil fuels.

Pupils can follow how much energy the panels are generating and how much carbon dioxide they have saved on a monitor screen in the school building.

Teenager abused and assaulted

BY ROB GIBSON
rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

A TEENAGER was racially abused and punched by a woman in the city centre.

The 19-year-old girl was walking home from Central Milton Keynes with her mother, newborn baby sister, and four-year-old brother, talking to each other in Swahili.

But as they passed the Xscape building a man and woman made racially abusive comments to them.

They walked off and waited for the victim and her family on the H6 over-bridge between Xscape and Fishermead.

As the family approached, the female stepped in front of the victim and punched her twice in the face, causing a cut lip and bruising.

Police are appealing for witnesses to the attack, which took place last Tuesday at around 3pm.

PC Kelly Gardner said: "This was a cowardly and unprovoked attack on the victim as she walked with her young family. We will not tolerate racial abuse in Milton Keynes and treat all cases very seriously. We are determined to catch those responsible for this assault."

Police described the female attacker as white, between 17 and 20-years-old, between 5ft 2ins and 5ft 4ins and of medium build.

She had brown hair in a shoulder-length ponytail, and was wearing tight jeans, tucked inside Ugg-type boots and a white T-shirt under a jumper.

The man is white, around 19 to 20-years-old, slim and around 5ft 6ins.

He had short, dark hair and was wearing a dark coloured hooded top.

Anyone with information can contact the police on 08458 505505.

ALBUM REVIEW

THIRD
Portishead

Ten years between albums is a hell of a long time to wait, so if you're finally going to stick your head above the parapet and release something new, it really should sound like you've spent a decade working on it.

Now then, there are times during this album where Portishead attain greatness, but on the other hand there are also a couple of ocassions where I was wondering whether certain parts were worth the wait.

What's beyond doubt though, is that Portishead have been to some pretty unhappy places during the making of this album, because you don't come up with something like this if your life is all sun, sea and smiles.

The album opens with Silence (what it's called, not what it is), which sounds like drums rolling around the studio floor while the guitarist practises and Beth Gibbons sings. It's actually rather wonderful, although my description probably hasn't helped.

Hunter is a perfectly serviceable slowie that sounds like it could've come from a 1960s British thriller, but it's spoiled by a keyboard riff cutting in without warning (or any need). It's not even playing at the same speed from what I can tell.

After that comes Nylon Smile, which sounds a bit like Lemon Jelly after an extraordinarily bad day, and then there's The Rip. This is another one of the album's highlights. It starts off a bit quiet, just the singer and a guitar to begin with, but then about two minutes in it transforms into something much more electronic – actually, it turns into the sort of song Midge Ure would've sold his granny for in the early 80s. That's not to say that Portishead have forgotten what it was that got them their fanbase in the first place, because Plastic starts out as Son Of Glory Box, but even that gets twisted into something even darker and menacing.

We Carry On goes on for six and a half minutes and there's all sorts going on here. Tribal beats, seemingly out-of-tune guitars, and what sounds like several different tunes being played at once. I like it.

As for Deep Water, it's a 'What the Hell?' moment. Beth Gibbons + Ukelele = one and a half minutes of total unexpectedness and a rather sweet song, which gets swept away by Machine Gun, which sounded pretty damned breathtaking as a single, but as part of the album it sounds right at home.

Small, however, is something of a disappointment. It's the longest track on the album, but it takes a couple of minutes before anything happens, and then after that it turns into a mental Summer Of Love experimentation type thing.

After that, you've got Magic Doors. It's got backwards sounds and pianos and halfway through it loses the plot completely, but on the other hand, how many other songs sound as though they've got an elephant singing along with Ms Gibbons?

Finally, there's Threads. Another song that harks back to how they used to sound, this one ends with the same riff being repeated over and over after the song fades out, which is a rather nifty way of ending the proceedings and just a tad unsettling.

There are little mistakes dotted about throughout the album. You'll hear the odd notes or beats not quite coming in at the right time and guitar strings squeaking here and there.

This not a complaint, not in the slightest. In fact, the minor errors add to the experience.

CHILDREN OF EDEN
Milton Keynes Amatuer Operatic Society
Until Saturday
FROM the creation to the flood live on stage, Milton Keynes AOS is taking on the Bible, well the first few chapters anyway.
Based loosely on the Genesis stories of Adam and Eve, Cain and Abel, Noah and the Flood, Children of Eden offers a fresh look at families, relationships and not to mention world-creation and world destruction.
Out of all of his own shows which included Godspell and Wicked, writer Stephen Schwartz feels that Children of Eden is his best score musically and has everything from gospel to a soft-shoe shuffle sung by a snake to four-part choral singing.
Coupled with a script by John Caird this promises to be an epic and unmissable production.
Tickets £14. £12 concessions (concessions not available on Friday or Saturday evening).
Start 7.30pm, Saturday matinee 2.15pm.

GARDENLIFE

Prunus Kanzan

TREES can really enhance a garden. They give a feeling of permanence, add height and colour, encourage wildlife and can be used to screen unwanted views or divert attention.

The most important consideration is size as some trees can reach 30m in height, too large for most urban gardens. This means that most of us will be trying to choose small trees (up to 10m) that offer as much year round interest as possible. This is achieved through flowers, interesting bark, berries and leaves.

The blowsy blooms of the flowering cherries (Prunus) are to be seen everywhere at the moment, these will shortly be followed by the hawthorn (Crataegus) and then the crab apples (Malus)

Most trees with spectacular blooms produce them in spring or summer but may not offer much for the rest of the year.

TREES FOR THE GARDEN

SALIX CAPREA 'PENDULA'
small umbrella like tree (2-3m) with silvery catkins

PRUNUS 'KANZAN'
Deep pink double flowers
P.KIKU-SHIDARE-ZAKURA
Weeping double pink flowers
CRATAEGUS (HAWTHORN)
White pink or red, C. Pauls Scarlet vibrant pink/red flowers. C prunifolia berries & autumn foliage
LABURNUM
Yellow weeping tree, (all parts are toxic)
AMELANCHIER
Spring blossom, black berries, brilliant autumn colour
ACERS
Too many to mention, all have wonderful autumn colour, many have interesting bark; A. palmatum 'Atropurpureum', A. Griseum, A. callipes,
SORBUS (ROWAN)
All the Sorbus have beautiful leaves and coloured berries (red, white yellow or pink.)
COTONEASTER
Evergreen leaves, pretty flowers in spring long lasting red berries
TAXUS BACCATA
Evergreen leaves with winter berries (toxic)
BETULA JACQUEMONTII
Beautiful white stemmed birch really glows in winter

TREE CARE

Container grown trees can be planted at most times of year (as long as the ground is not frozen.

Water the plant thoroughly before planting and dig a hole large enough to easily take the rootball. Once planted its important to water if the weather is excessively windy or hot. (It's a good idea to mulch around the tree, this helps reduce weeds and keep in moisture.

JOBS TO DO IN MAY

■ Plant up hanging baskets and tubs Suggested basket plants. Geranium, Fuschias, Trailing Lobelia comes in dark blue, light blue, white, pink and red. Other plants include, Verbena, Brachycombe, Begonias, Bacopa, Surfinias, Petunias, Busy Lizzies
■ Watch out for aphids. Either wash off or spray with an insecticide.
■ Cut the lawn and give it a spring feed.
■ Feed roses and border plants.
■ Control slugs and snails by using traps or pellets.
■ Tidy the pond and plant up new aquatic baskets with water lilies and other pond plants.

HA HA BAR & GRILL

The Hub
Review by Andy Handley

THE ha ha bar & grill has launched its new menu and this Hub dining experience has changed no fewer than 23 of its selections.

Sandwiched between the Ramada and Jurys Inn, ha ha bar & grill is smack bang in the middle of our business district and that could be why they are now offering a pre-order lunch.

For those who are tight for time just phone or e-mail your order and the time you are arriving and, hey presto, it appears – a natty idea for those rushed lunch hours.

We chose a more leisurely affair enjoying a very filling three coarse sitting.

Starting with a mushroom bruchett (£4.50) the three varieties of mushroom blended beautifully with the stilton, my guest went for a chicken liver and bacon pate (£4.75) served with your choice of bread the rich flavour combined with the sticky onion relish.

For mains picked what must be this years favorite meat lamb. The Welsh lamb cutlets (£12.75) come with a selection of seasonal vegetable, crisp, and the meat cooked to your liking. The taste is wonderful and the blackberry and rosemary sauce is to die for.

While my partner chose a vegetarian option, not because she is but because it sounded so nice.

She was not disappointed the mushroom, pea and asparagus risotto (£8.95), the arborio rissotto was light and the vegetables cooked to perfection.

Having already eaten far too much we decided to share pudding and thank goodness we did, the raspberry cheesecake (£4.50) was topped with an abundance of ice-cream.

Far to much for lunch? Yes, but the lighter plates are an option. It's your choice, but I recommend you take the choice up.

Cranfield lands a first in UK

CRANFIELD School of Management will host the 2008 European Academy for Business in Society (EABIS) Colloquium.

This will be the first time the event has been held in the UK.

More than 300 delegates from leading businesses and business schools across Europe and further afield are expected to attend the event on September 10 and 12.

EABIS is a unique alliance of companies, business schools and academic institutions that is, with the support of the European Commission, committed to integrating business in society issues into the heart of business theory and practice in Europe.

It was formed in 2002 at INSEAD Business School (France) by a number of leading European business schools including Cranfield, Bocconi (Milan), IESE (Spain) and the London and Copenhagen Business Schools. The founding corporate partners are IBM, Johnson & Johnson, Microsoft, Shell and Unilever. EABIS now includes over 60 Business Schools and corporate members.

The theme of this year's conference is 'Corporate Responsibility and Sustainability: Leadership and Organisational Change.' It will focus on how businesses integrate responsibility and sustainability.

Conference Chair Professor Andrew Kakabadse said: "EABIS is the world's largest business-academic-stakeholder event on Corporate Responsibility and Management Development providing a unique platform for high level debate and exchange.

"The conference will drill into the vital challenges of embedding Corporate Responsibility and Sustainability into the DNA of a firm (structures, cultures, systems, processes and competencies), the implied organisational change, innovations or even transformation this takes, and the required leadership for making this happen."

Co-chair: David Grayson, director of the Doughty Centre for Corporate Responsibility at Cranfield, added: "Cranfield School of Management is all about knowledge into action; and this conference is an opportunity to exchange experiences of embedding ethical business practice.

"Across the world there are heightened expectations of how business should be run. The EABIS conference will improve understanding of how businesses can respond to these heightened expectations in ways which are good for business as well as good for society."

■ For further information,contact: Helen Knight, EABIS Colloquium Co-ordinator, at helen.knight@cranfield.ac.uk or visit www.eabis08.info

Duchess hosts charity dinner

DYNAMIC local-based charity MK SNAP has raised over £17,000 towards equipping their new centre thanks to the annual dinner hosted for the first time by their new patron, the Duchess of Bedford.

The evening was sponsored by Clydesdale Bank, and featured an energetic and highly entertaining auction by Charles Ross, which resulted in over £9,000 being paid for a spectacular series of lots.

The Duchess of Bedford introduced MK SNAP's new film about the work of the charity, highlighted the need for such a charity which is unique to Milton Keynes. To find out more about this dynamic locally based charity, please visit their website www.mksnap.org.

Britain's record Olympic medallist with nine golds, paralympic swimmer Chris Holmes was the guest speaker, describing with humour and insight his path to success and achievement after losing his sight overnight at the age of 14. He emphasised the need for encouraging people who as the result of circumstance found themselves disabled, to have opportunities to enable them to play their full part in society in all areas of work and sport.

Top three interview traits that count

- Enthusiasm
- Honesty
- Interpersonal skills

THE traditional 'CV boosters' including gap year travel and enjoying a range of extra-curricular activities may not be much help to you when it comes to getting a job according to a new report.

The YouGov poll of more than 1,000 employers and 1,000 students commissioned by the university of Hertfordshire, found that instead of seeking the 'all action' graduates often advocated by tutors and traditional careers advisors, what really counts for employers is enthusiasm, strong interpersonal skills and an open, honest manner.

The news will come as a shock to many undergraduates, with fewer than one in five believing openness and honesty to be among the three most important traits to demonstrate at an interview.

Enthusiasm was cited as one of the three most important qualities in a candidate by half of employers, but at the same time just for one per cent considered a gap year to be of particular merit.

Openness and honesty was considered a top quality by 43 per cent of executives (compared with only 19 per cent of students), yet political work was found to impress fewer than just one in five employers (just 18 per cent).

A quarter of employers also prefer male graduates to turn up to interview without a tie and more than 40 per cent don't agree that formal attire is an part of important making a good first impression, perhaps taking the lead from media and business figures like Jeremy Paxman and Sir Richard Branson.

Anusha Everson, University of Hertfordshire director of graduate employment said: "Much emphasis has traditionally been put on 'box ticking', with significant parts of job applications and CVs devoted to the quantifiable skills that suggest a 'rounded' individual.

"These results suggest that a wide diversity of interests, such as political activism and voluntary work are in fact less valued among graduate employers than traits such as enthusiasm and honesty."

Gap-year travel is not high on employers' ideal candidate list

MK MOTORING

Driving green gets cheaper

WITH fuel prices hitting the £1.15 a litre mark and emissions-based car tax all making motoring more expensive than ever before, it has been revealed that two thirds of motorists are looking to buy a greener vehicle the next time they upgrade.

In light of this, leading retailer Perrys Peugeot on Bilton Road, Bletchley, is offering some sound advice to drivers on how to save money and the environment when out on the roads, as well as information on the most environmentally friendly Peugeot cars available in the Perrys range.

"These days car manufacturers are becoming more and more environmentally conscientious. Peugeot, for example, has just announced that all its HDi Diesel engines can be run on 30 per cent bio fuel," said Perrys regional director, Mike Beevis. "Engines are also getting much more efficient, both in terms of fuel consumption and CO2 emissions, meaning you can help reduce your impact simply by switching your car."

The compact Peugeot 107

Currently, Perrys is offering a number of its most environmentally friendly vehicles at reduced prices, making it easier than ever before to get behind the wheel of a greener machine.

Cars like the 107 1.0, which produces just 109 g/km CO2 (tax band B) and is available from just £6,295 using Perrys £1,000 customer saving, or the 207 Hdi70, which emits just 117 g/km CO2 (tax band B) and starts at £10,295.

And, for those who are interested in a larger car for business or family use, the 308 Hdi 90 is available from £13,595, releasing just 120 g/km CO2, which places it within tax band B.

"Our range of environmentally friendly cars is growing all the time and is only going to get bigger as it becomes more and more unfashionable to be seen in a 'gas guzzler'.

"Of course, driving an environmentally friendly vehicle is only part of the solution," continued Mike. "Being a better driver also makes a big difference using less fuel which means producing less CO2 whilst also reducing the wear and tear on your vehicle in general. So, even if your not currently looking to change your car, you can still do your bit for the environment."

- Firstly, drive in a steady and efficient manner. Research shows that you use 9 per cent less fuel driving at 60mph than at 70mph.
- Check your tyres regularly. It is estimated that half of tyres on Britain's roads are under inflated, which can drastically reduce fuel efficiently as well as compromise safety.
- Don't drive on the 'red light'. It may feel like your saving the pennies by prolonging the next visit to the petrol station, but what you're actually doing is damaging the engine and further reducing fuel efficiency whilst increasing emissions.
- Be a steady driver and avoid erratic tendencies such as heavy accelerating, braking and tailgating. Keeping to a steady speed can drastically reduce your fuel consumption and emissions by up to 30%.
- Plan your journey. Avoid rush hour where possible as stop-starts can increase emissions.
- Think about what you have, and what you actually need, in your car. Extra weight means extra petrol, which means more emissions.

For more information about the extensive range of 'greener' vehicles available at Perrys, or to book your current car in for an inspection to make sure it is running as efficiently as possible, please contact Perrys on 01908 360 200.

FANS have voted for their best player of the season.

Keeper Willy Gueret was awarded the MK Dons supporters' Player of the Year for his remarkable season between the sticks.

Gueret's penalty save in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy Final against Grimsby Town will live long in the memory for those who witness the Dons collect their first ever silverware at Wembley that day.

The Frenchman also kept 20 clean sheets in the Dons' championship winning League campaign.

Dean Lewington, who played a crucial part in keeping those clean sheets, scooped both the Players' Player of the Year and Fans' Favourite.

Meanwhile, Lloyd Dyer picked up the Most Exciting Player of the Year and skipper Keith Andrews won Goal of the Season for his stunning chip at Stockport, which not only won the game for the Dons but also clinched promotion.

Two-year deals for five Dons academy kids

MIKE Dove has revealed five academy players have been offered two-year apprenticeship deals.

Adam Chicksen, Tom Flanagan, Troy Farden, Martell Powell and Charlie Collins have all been offered the contract.

The academy boss also said in his programme notes, that there are still 'decisions to make on a couple of other players'.

AARON Wilbraham has become the third MK Dons player to collect the League Two player of the month award.

The striker scored three goals last month as the Dons claimed the League Two title in an unbeaten April.

On Saturday his tenth of the season ensured the Dons ended the campaign with a 1-1 draw against Morecambe.

The 28-year-old beat Peterborough forward Craig Mackail-Smith, Hereford's Gary Hooper and Wycombe's Scott McGleish to the award.

Lloyd Dyer's scooped the accolade in October and goalkeeper Willy Gueret's also won the award for his December displays.

Fans show that success breeds success

BY SIMONE CORGAN

CELEBRATIONS were well under way before a ball had even been kicked in MK Dons' last game of the season.

Not even a lacklustre affair with Morecambe, which ended in a fair 1-1 result, could dampen spirits.

In a year that milestones were set for MK Dons they smashed another record as they left League Two - the highest attendance of the season.

A massive 17,250 fans turned out at stadiummk to see the Dons presented with the League Two trophy and ensured while the game lacked a spark there was always a buzzing atmosphere in the stands.

It was a typical end-of-season game where both teams looked like they would rather be anywhere other than on a football field.

Just as they had at Christie Park Morecambe held their own with the Dons and were well worth their point at the final whistle.

Jemal Johnson drilled straight at Shwan Jalal and at the other end Carl Baker had an effort tipped away by Willy Gueret in the opening ten minutes.

Paul Ince used to fixture to allow the like of Luke Howell and John Miles to impress while Craig Dobson made his long awaited debut.

The winger has been hit by injury since joining for the Dons and was given the first-half to make an impress.

There were plenty of signs of an exciting player as Dobson used his pace to get the better of the full-backs.

But it was Johnson, on the opposite wing, who set up the Dons' goal four minutes before the break.

After cutting in from the right Johnson shrugged off challenges on his way to the edge of the box, he was unlucky to have his shot blocked by a Shrimps defender, but Aaron Wilbraham had made an intelligent run and was able to collect then slot beyond the reach of Jalal.

It was to be the Dons' final goal of the season as they failed to extend their lead although Danny Swailes had a header cleared off the line.

The Dons should have been awarded a penalty when Shrimps' substitute Michael Twiss hacked down Lloyd Dyer, who was a nuisance since his introduction at half-time, inside the box.

Twiss then rubbed salt in the wounds as he levelled on the 78th minute.

Garry Thompson did all the hard work with a terrific cross from the right which Wayne Curtis headed back across the box for Twiss to nod in at the near post.

The point ensured Morecambe finished in eleventh, while the Dons chalked up 97 points - five clear of second-placed Peterborough.

All that was left was for the Dons players and staff to collected their medals and the League Two trophy from Lord Mawhinney before embarking on a lap of honour where they received rapturous applause from the MK-Army.

Ince took a bow in front of the Cowshed, and so he should, for the 2007/08 season has been one no Dons fan will ever forget.

MK DONS – THE CHAIRMAN SPEAKS

We're right at the beginning so, for everyone that is not a part of it, come and be a part because we've got a few years to write this history yet

– Chairman Pete

SATURDAY, April 26 is a day that no MK Dons fan will ever forget. It was the moment they were named League Two Champions 2007/08.

More importantly for Pete Winkelman it was the day they carved the club's name in the history books.

The Dons' chairman has put in a lot of hard graft getting the club up and running in Milton Keynes, now he is enjoying watching the Dons in their attempts to transform into one of the rising forces in the lower tiers of the Football League.

"We're definitely going forward in the eyes of football.

"The first bits of silverware are the things that create history," Winkelman added, "That's massive for us because I think then people have got to give us the respect we deserve for being where we are.

"Everyone across the country can see a club in Milton Keynes can be powerful, and could become a big club one day."

To say it has been a dream year in the life of a chairman would be an understatement in Winkelman's case.

In July the Dons moved into their new multimillion pound stadiummk, from then on they have smashed club records left, right and centre, made their debut at Wembley where they emerged as Johnstone's Paint Trophy winners then went on to clinch the League to make it a double winning campaign.

"I'm privileged to have been able to take a team to Wembley.

"To go and win it as well was something very, very special.

" The Johnstone's Paint Trophy was the icing on the cake because we did discuss our chances when Paul took over. So to go and achieve both the top prizes is truly incredible."

But the cup run was only a welcome distraction for the Dons, their eyes from the word go had been set on promotion to League One.

After 46 nerve wrenching matches Winkelman was finally able to sit back and reflect on the historic season that had flown by.

"I've enjoyed the last couple of weeks, being able to celebrate the games. There are a few games that stand out for me. Brentford away was great. We've lost there so many times when we really should have won, a personal one I really enjoyed.

"And our performance against Wycombe when we were down to nine men was such a battling experience."

Another aspect that has made the season so thrilling for Winkelman has been the Dons' shoulder-to-shoulder tussle with Peterborough for the league.

The local rivals pushed the Dons on towards the latter stages with advantage at the top changing almost every game.

"It is a friendly rivalry we have with Peterborough and I think it is very special. I'm sure we'll take it in to League One."

While Winkelman admits it will be a difficult year to match, he does believe success is only just starting for the Dons.

"This is work in progress and it has been for a number of years.

"We're right at the beginning so, for everyone that is not a part of it, come and be a part because we've got a few years to write this history yet. There's been so many highlights of the season that I will remember for the rest of my life and I hope our supporters do too."

MK DONS – A SHAKY START

Willy Gueret goes the wrong way as Bury's Andy Bishop hits home from the spot to win the game

Shakers stir as Dons suffer a mixed start

DREAMS of promotion were put firmly to the back of the mind when MK Dons suffered a shock defeat on the opening day of the season.

It was a mixed start for the Dons as one win, one draw and one defeat left them in tenth place at the end of the month.

Paul Ince's reign in the brand new stadiummk was far from the fairytale beginning that had been expected as the Dons, down to ten men, lost 2-1 to the Shakers.

Dons' skipper Keith Andrews had his side going on the right track with a beautiful strike on the 20th minute, yet for all their possession and dominance in the first-half Ince's team could not double their advantage.

A nightmare second-half saw the Shakers inject a little life into their performance in the form of Andy Bishop who came off the bench to level the score and then slot home a penalty after Drissa Diallo was shown red.

While a man and a goal down may have proved too much the Dons were able to show their fighting spirit a week later when they rescued a point at Macclesfield in dramatic fashion.

Again, Andrews cropped up early to put the Dons ahead but when Francis Green struck on the 63rd minute they were left scratching their heads as the Silkmen gained a 3-1 lead.

With Ince, back at the side he rescued from relegation months earlier, fuming on the touchline Leon Knight pulled one back before Colin Cameron's scorching shot deep in injury time gave the Dons their first point of the 2007/08 campaign.

Fans had to wait until the end of the month for the first win, which came in the shape of a 3-0 victory over Shrewsbury Town. Goals came courtesy of Knight, Lloyd Dyer and Andrews but it was the three points that mattered more than the score line.

Dons history makers as they top the table

MK Dons moved to the top of the table for the first time in their history when they beat Morecambe 1-0.

Four wins on the bounce saw the Dons climb from tenth to first, scoring ten and conceding three as Willy Gueret kept four clean sheets.

However, it could have been very different after the month started with a heartbreaking 3-2 defeat at the hands of Rochdale.

After losing 5-0 at the Spotland stadium a year ago the Dons were intent on revenge. Kevin Gallen's brace gave the Dons plenty to be optimistic about heading into injury time with a 2-1 lead, yet Adam Le Frondre and Chris Dagnell struck to not only pull Rochdale level, but to snatch victory from the jaws of defeat.

The last-gasp defeat was put to bed the following week when the Dons recorded their second successive 3-0 win at stadiummk.

Keith Andrews continued his impressive spell in front of goal with his fourth in five games before Danny Swailes chipped in with his first in Dons colours and Aaron Wilbraham nodded in the third.

Three was the magic number once again at Griffin Park as Paul Ince got one over his old England team mate Terry Butcher.

A poor Brentford outfit were undone by a superb Jemal Johnson volley coupled with a double from Andrews.

Victory, thanks to a late header from Drissa Diallo, took the Dons to within a point of top.

Deserved league leader's status came on September, 29, and it took a lot of grinding to get there.

While Lloyd Dyer's spectacular strike saw off a battling Morecambe, it was far from one-way traffic.

MK DONS – NINE STRAIGHT WINS

Dons unbeaten until Stockport spoil party

Drissa Diallo in acrobatic form against Bradford

A RECORD-BREAKING month for the Dons took them three points clear at the top following nine victories on the bounce.

The only sour note in October was seeing that run ended at home in a 2-0 defeat to Stockport.

At times the Dons rode their luck, especially when they travelled to Mansfield Town on a miserable Tuesday night. They looked a shadow of their usual selves yet still managed to come away 2-1 winners.

They came from behind as the combination of goals from Lloyd Dyer and a rare one from Jude Stirling were enough to erase Mickey Boulding's opener for the Stags.

It was becoming increasingly obvious that the only way to stop the Dons was to stifle them, something Bradford City appeared intent on.

But their negative tactics failed to pay off when Keith Andrews and Drissa Diallo found the back of the net to secure another 2-1 win.

Lincoln City then turned up at Milton Keynes with very little in the way of tactics and were promptly torn apart by a fluent Dons side inspired by a Leon Knight double.

Aaron Wilbraham and Dyer were also on target in the 4-0 hammering – a result that later cost Lincoln manager John Schofield his job.

Mark Wright's solitary goal at Hereford United sent the Dons on their way to an unbeaten month but Stockport County upset the form book to beat the Dons 2-0. It was the first time the Dons had failed to score all season.

Fans hail brave nine-men

A BRILLIANT defensive half hour display from a nine-man Dons team saw off wave after wave of Wycombe attacks to hold out.

Two red cards, Andrews for a controversial alleged elbow and Lloyd Dyer for a clumsy challenge, a Gueret penalty save (again) and a well taken goal by new dad Colin Cameron ensured an entertaining Bucks derby.

A dominant Dons moved four points clear at the top of the table with a fine 2-0 win over Grimsby. It took the Dons just 23 seconds to start the scoring with a Wilbraham goal before Wright made the points safe just before half time.

A brief flirtation with the FA Cup ended in a 2-1 defeat at Crewe so it was back to league matters at Chester.

Not for the first time this season goalie Gueret was the Dons hero. A string of match-winning saves and his second penalty save in two weeks ensured he kept his eleventh clean sheet of the season and the Dons won through 2-0. Wright was on the scoresheet again with the second coming from Jemal Johnson.

The last league encounter of the month saw the Dons once again slip up at home to Chesterfield.

A below par 90 minutes from the Dons let the Spireites away with all three points. Wright kept his run going with his fifth of the season.

MK DONS – THE PERFECT CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR

Celebrations again as Lloyd Dyer hits number four for MK Dons against Accrington Stanley

DRISSA Diallo's solo goal against the Daggers helped the Dons back to winning ways and restored their two point lead at the top of the table before the hectic Christmas schedule.

Outplayed and outclassed - that was the view of Accrington Stanley boss John Coleman after watching his side tore apart in a 5-0 drubbing. The Dons simply dominated from start to finish with slick passing. For long periods it was like a training match. All the goals came from midfield, Dyer scored two superb goals and Andrews, Navarro and Cameron weighed in with the rest.

A superb 2-1 win over promotion rivals Peterborough was just the early Christmas present manager Ince would have wished for. Skipper Andrews was once again instrumental in his midfield role. He set up Gallen for the first then sealed a quality performance with a rocket shot ofhis own. Ince was full of praise for his team saying his side played some 'fantastic football' against a strong opposition.

Against Brentford in the next match a Kevin Gallen equaliser was enough to ensure the points were shared with the Bees while another fine away win at Darlington, thanks to a goal from supersub Johnson in the last league match of 2007, made it the perfect Christmas and New Year for the Dons. Little did they know what January had in store.

MK Dons v Notts County: Keith Andrews celebrates with Aaron Wilbraham for the Dons thidrd goal

January misery

THE Dons started the New Year as they finished the last with a 1-0 win, this time at home to Mansfield. A superb free kick from Keith Andrews settling the tie.

This was followed up by another 1-0 win, their fourth in a row four days later. The Dons defence weathered an attacking storm from Rotherham and Mark Wrights late winner pinched all three points.

But 2008 was soon to turn sour, as the Dons were about to embark on what would turn out to be the bleakest part of the season for them. It would be February 2 before they would win in the league again.

The first signs of a blip came at home to Barnet. The Dons looked out of sorts throughout and a debatable offside goal sealed it for the visitors.

Things went from bad to worse when the Dons travelled to rock bottom Wrexham. Without a win in seven home games the Welsh side had brought in seven players in the January transfer window and it paid off, they won 1-0. Paul Ince said after the game that his team had let themselves down failing to battle hard enough.

If Ince thought things would get better in their next home match against Rochdale, he was wrong. The visitors did the season double over them despite being down to ten men and Andrews missing a first half penalty. In truth the Dons should have won by a cricket score but when things aren't going for you the poor results keep coming.

The side finally managed to record their first point in four games three days later despite going behind at home to Macclesfield. It was left to central defender Sean O'Hanlon to smash home the leveller in the second half and wave goodbye to a miserable January.

MK DONS – DING-DONGS MERRILY ON HIGH

Bury buried in bounce back

THE Dons had brought in two new players in the January transfer window, winger Craig Dobson and defender Carl Regan. Ince started this month determined to bounce back from a disappointing start to the year.

His wishes were granted in an emphatic 5-1 win away at Bury. To be honest, someone was always going to be on the end of a hammering from the Dons sooner rather than later and the Lancashire outfit fitted the bill perfectly.

Mark Wright stole the show with the first hat-trick of his professional career. Further goals from Lloyd Dyer and Kevin Gallen capped an impressive team performance.

Back at stadiummk the Dons dropped two more points against Rotherham although the game was overshadowed by a serious injury to Stephen Brogan.

The 19-year-old Rotherham player suffered a double facture to his left leg following a collision with Dons keeper Willy Gueret.

The Dons were 1-0 up when the injury happened following Gallen's opener but the team seemed out of sorts after the injury and let the visitors back in.

No one could have anticipated the excitement in the next match at Shrewsbury Town. The Dons were 3-0 up at half time and were totally coasting but the second half was a completely different story. The Shrews fought their way back into the match and with the game poised at 3-2 with only seconds left the home side snatched a late equaliser.

Spectacular strikes from Lloyd Dyer and Alan Navarro in a 2-0 home win against Barnet ended the month on a high with the Dons still top but only by a point.

Another record as crowd tops 14k for Posh crunch game

MARCH was another great month for the Dons. It started with a 1-0 win at home to Chester City, Danny Swailes getting in on the scoring act with a wonder goal. Willy Gueret earnt his wages with a penalty save, something Dons fans were going to get quite used to!

It was a dress rehearsal for the Johhnstone's Paint Trophy when the Dons travelled to Grimsby. The win, via a Swalies header from a corner, saw the Dons leapfrog Peterborough back to the top of league two if only for 24 hours.

Three days later the team travelled to a windswept Chesterfield for a hard fought victory in front of the Sky cameras. Both sides were evenly matched but goals from Andrews and a lovely winner from Dyer were enough.

Not many games came much easier for the Dons this season than Dagenham and Redbridge at home. A 4-0 romp of a match that saw Wilbraham bag a brace and Dyer and Gallen get one each.

It was a case of beauty and the beast football over the Easter weekend. The top of the table clash with Peterborough United saw the spoils shared in a 1-1 draw on Good Friday while a gritty 1-0 win over Accrington on Easter Monday nabbed all three points.

A record crowd of 14,521 turned out to watch the Dons take on Posh at stadiummk while just 1,559 made up the crowd at Accrington.

Wilbraham grabbed the goal against Posh while an 83 minute strike from Wright was enough at Accrington.

MK DONS – PLAYERS GET A SPRING IN THEIR STEP

Promotion is secured

IT was a case of another game ticked off, another three points and a step closer to League One for the Dons after their away match at Lincoln.

The Dons' win may not have had their usual flair, grace or beauty but it did have plenty of determination, grit and desire. This was the seventeenth league game the team had won by a one goal margin this season. Carl Regan grabbed his first goal since joining in Janauary and despite O'Hanlon being forced off with a broken nose, Johnson finished off the Imps in the second half.

The Dons returned to the summit of the table three days later with an emphatic 4-1 win over to-be-relegated Wrexham. Another brace from Wilbraham combined with goals from defensive pairing Swailes and a rebuilt O'Hanlon.

Promotion was put on hold when they drew 2-2 at stadiummk.

Scott McGliesh's double, the second a minute after Wilbraham had the Dons back on level terms was a superb 25-yard lob, looked to be enough for Wycombe.

But O'Hanlon bagged his second in as many games in injury time to share the spoils.

Three days later the Dons were further frustrated when Hereford held them to their first scoreless draw of the season.

At Stockport it was wrapped up in style as the Dons twice came from behind through Mark Wright and Alan Navarro before Andrews' chipped in the winner.

Next up was the title.

A Jude Stirling header coupled with Lloyd Dyer's tap-in five minutes later handed the Dons the title in a 2-1 win at Bradford City.

It was their 18th win on the road, equalling a 61-year record held by Doncaster Rovers.

The party begins as Dons players and staff salute the record crowd

That's just champion!

ONE game in May meant one big party for MK Dons.

There was nothing to play for in the final game as the Dons already had the title wrapped up and their opponents, Morecambe, had secured their place in the Football League for another year.

But Ince wanted his side to sign off on a high with 99 points a definite possibility.

Unfortunately, the Dons could not register their 30th win of a spectacular season as Morecambe managed to take a point.

A massive 17,250 supporters turned out, a club record and a League Two record for the season, to watch the champions collect their prize but first there was a match to be played. Aaron Wilbraham reached double figures in the goal tally with a strike four minutes before the break but Morecambe salvaged a draw late in the second-half through Michael Twiss' header.

Minutes after the final whistle Andrews collected the League Two Trophy from chairman of the Football League, Lord Mawhinney, and the Dons set off on a lap of honour as fans thanked them for a truly remarkable season.

MK DONS – TEAM AND FANS PAINT THE TOWN RED

Dons' stylish football graces Wembley

Johnstone's Paint Trophy

A MEMORABLE competition as the Dons lifted their first ever piece of silverware on the grandest stage of all, Wembley Stadium.

35,000 fans travelled south to see MK Dons make their debut on the hallowed turf where captain Keith Andrews and central defender Sean O'Hanlon scored to send Grimsby Town crashing to defeat.

Willy Gueret's superb penalty save denied Grimsby a first-half lead and the Mariners would rue it as the Dons collected their winners' medals from the Royal Box.

It was a long hard road to Wembley, after receiving a bye to the second round Dons had to overcome Peterborough. Something they did comfortably with Colin Cameron and a brace from Mark Wright helping the Dons to a 3-1 win.

League One's Bournemouth were then dumped out by the Dons following Keith Andrews' penalty and Danny Swailes' acrobatic strike.

Gillingham were a little tougher to crack.

The Dons fell a goal behind on 84 minutes but Jemal Johnson raced up field to level within a minute.

The southern area final spot was decided on penalties as Gills' Luis Cumber hit the bar, Drissa Diallo sent the Dons through to the next round.

Wembley was booked when the Dons' beat League One leaders Swansea City on penalties.

A strike from Johnson and a spot-kick from Jason Scotland had the tie all square after two legs.

Ironically it was Gueret's save in the shoot-out from Scotland that, coupled with Drewe Broughton's successful penalty sent the Dons to the JPT final.

Wembley was a party from the minute go for the fans and when the final whistle went the players joined in to celebrate a famous day. Sunday, March 30 is a day Dons fans will never forget.

Carling Cup

A BRIEF flirtation with the Carling Cup provided plenty of excitement at stadiummk.

The Dons squeezed past Ipswich Town in a dramatic penalty shoot-out following a thrilling 3-3 draw at the end of 120 minutes.

But the Dons' campaign was cut short by Sheffield United when Geoff Horseman netted in extra-time to claim a 3-2 victory.

FA Cup

THE FA Cup run was short-lived for the Dons as they were knocked out in the first round by Crewe Alexandra.

Jemal Johnson's 69th minute penalty was not enough to prevent a 2-1 defeat.

MK DONS – DONS BOSS PRAISES FANS

> When I look back at the season I think the pivotal time was the Wycombe game. That epitomises what we're all about when we had nine players and still got a point
> – Paul Ince

IN his first full season as a manager Paul Ince achieved what others fail to do in a lifetime, win not one but two cups and promotion in the process.

Ince has carried the success he had as a player through to his days as a Gaffer and has guided MK Dons to a record breaking season.

He became the first boss to bring silverware, in the form of the Johnstone's Paint Trophy, to Milton Keynes, then a month later added the League Two title to the trophy cabinet.

"For me the season has been unbelievable," Ince said, "as a manager all the responsibility is on you to bring in the right players, make sure all the tactics are right. If you don't get them right then you're out of a job, so the fact that we've won the double means I've done OK."

Following a club that has suffered the heartache of relegation twice, many fans would point out the modest boss has been more than "OK" in his first year with MK Dons.

But Ince is reluctant to take much of the praise because while he, along with his trusty assistant Ray Mathias, may be the brains behind the game it is his squad that put the work into practice on the field.

"I love my job, I've just started out. I'm learning all the time and I'm enjoying it.

"We've had some bad results this year but our performances have always been spot on.

Paul Ince shows his joy after the away win at Darlington

"When I look back at the season I think the pivotal time was the Wycombe game."

That will ring true for most Dons fans who travelled to Adams Park and watched their nine-man team hold off Wycombe for half an hour to draw 1-1.

"That epitomises what we're all about when we had nine players and still got a point.

"That's when I knew we had a special squad here.

"We know we can play, we know we've got good players but you've got to have a good team spirit.

"Credit to the players they have been absolutely awesome."

As a former England captain with every domestic honour to his name, Ince was always bound to have a few eyes watch over him in his managerial career.

However, it is not just his famous name that has made the football world sit up and take notice of the Dons.

It is the way his side play the beautiful game which has attracted thousands more admirers to the club.

When the Dons left the National Hockey stadium in May 2007 they were attracting gates of 8,000. In stadiummk they have doubled that attendance, and when they made it to Wembley for the Johnstone's Paint Trophy 35,000 turned out to support them.

"The fans have been absolutely awesome to me, they've taken me under their wing.

"I can't say enough how great they have been this year.

"When I first came here I wanted to put Milton Keynes on the map. We've done that and we've created history at the same time."

Guildford too hot for Lions

A BRAVE MK Lions side were left disappointed at the weekend when the BBL play-off championship slipped through their hands.

The Lions went very close to finishing their record breaking year in spectacular season with a cup double.

Not even the most die-hard Lions fan could have envisaged they would reach the play-off final, knocking out favourites Newcastle Eagles on the way.

But they did, and only Guildford Heat stood in the way of the Lions scooping the play-off championship to go with their BBL Cup.

In a bright start to the final at the National Indoor Arena the Lions led the way by scoring eight of the opening ten points.

It took a while for Guildford to mount pressure, but when Danny Gilbert, who was awarded the Most Valuable Player accolade, bagged a three-pointer two minutes from the end of the quarter the lead was cut back to four points at 19-15.

Four consecutive free-throws from EJ Harrison and a basket from John Nottley gave Guildford a three point lead at the end of the quarter.

Mike Martin helped extend that advantage to eight points but the introduction of Shawn Jamision kept the Lions within touching distance.

Four points from Tony Windless reduced the deficit to three points before Jamison netted a rebound taking the score to 36-37 with just over a minute remaining before half-time.

The two sides continued to exchange scores and Guildford took a slender one point advantage at the interval.

Robert Youngblood edged the Lions in front on the restart yet Martin and Tony Dorsey found the basket with almost every move.

It was a credible third quarter performance from the Lions as they continuously pushed Guildford to the maximum and the lead switched hands a number of times.

As usual, Terrell Brown was proving a handful with some darting runs, one that finished with a giant three-pointer to take the score to 47-48.

Yet, four points from Dorsey made life increasingly difficult for Vince Macauley's men.

A Guildford 10-0 tear at the beginning of the fourth all but ended the game.

Dru Spinks, the Lions' captain, tried to inspire his side to a fight-back and the lead was cut down to seven, yet hopes were quickly dashed by four foul shots in quick succession from Tony Dorsey, after a technical foul on Coach Macaulay following a foul given on Spinks.

"I am very proud of my team" said Lions owner and coach, Macaulay, "We took care of the League Champions, Newcastle, and we could have come away with a positive result, as it turns out we congratulate the Guildford Heat for a terrific effort"

Rugby legend bows out at stadiummk

BY SIMONE CORGAN

simone.corgan@mk-news.co.uk

ENGLAND and British Lions legend Richard Hill will bow out of rugby this weekend in Milton Keynes.

Hill will take to the field for one last time on Saturday in Saracens' final game of the Guinness Premiership season against Bristol at stadiummk.

The fixture has been switched to MK Dons' stadium due to Watford's play-off clash with Hull City at Vicarage Road, which they ground share with the rugby side, taking place on the same day.

It will be the first rugby match to take place at stadiummk since it opened last July.

And although Hill, who has confirmed he will take part in the game, admits the switch of venue is not ideal he is relishing the prospect of playing at the new venue in front of thousands of Fez Boys.

"It's a bit disappointing that Watford FC weren't able to conjure up any one of another 22 positions in the league, but that's life. Milton Keynes looks like a great venue and hopefully on Saturday we'll have a lot of Saracens fans at the ground but also attract an audience from the local area and put on a good display of rugby.

"It's not the venue where I would have expected to complete my playing days and stadiummk will be my fourth 'home' ground as a Saracen - for a week at least. I started out at Bramley Road, moved to Vicarage Road, and now I'll be finishing up on the M1 at Milton Keynes. But wherever the venue, I will be sharing the day with my playing colleagues, friends, family and the Saracens fans and that's how I want it."

The World Cup winner, who was capped 71 by England and made five appearance for the British Lions, has been an integral part to Saracens in his 15 years with the club.

His captain, Springbok Neil de Kock, described him as 'Saracen's backbone' and his recent performances in the Heineken Cup against Ospreys and Munster have shown while two knee reconstructions combined with a long line of injuries may have him walking on one leg, he still has that skill which has seen him touted as one of the world's best flankers.

And after years of dedication to Sarries, they will be desperate to give him the victorious send off he deserves.

Not only will the club be saying farewell to Hill, they will also be waving goodbye to director of rugby Alan Gaffney.

The Saracens boss has added some stability to the 'underachievers' of the Premiership, this year he guided them to the Heineken Cup semi-final for the first time in their history.

But in recent weeks they have suffered heavy defeats at the hands of Wasps and Bath.

Scrum-half de Kock knows Saracens must give their fans something to cheer about and the only way to do so would be with a victory over Bristol.

"We have fallen by the wayside lately and fallen off the pace. We have to focus on Bristol as long as we focus on our performance the result should take care of it's self."

■ SUPPORTERS who have Vicarage Road season tickets and match tickets for the Saracens game will be valid for stadiummk on Saturday, May 10 with supporters able to exchange their tickets for stadiummk tickets on arrival at the ground from 12pm.

Tickets can be purchased at www.saracens.com or by calling 01823 475222.
